My dear mother
I am so glad to hear from you and hope you are all well.
I am well and hope you are the same.
Love,
Webb

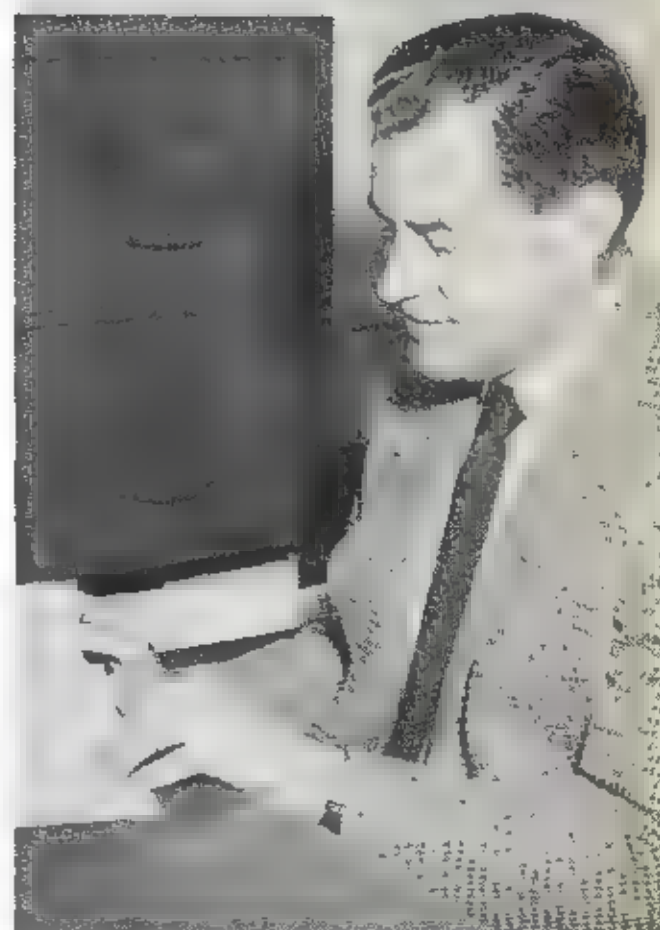

to earl killough

Coach Killough examines the ankle of athlete Larry Pace before the Carrollton game.

... we present this, the PANTHER of 1953, for his long and untiring years of devoted service to Hillcrest High School and the young men and women to whom he means so much. We shall ever remember EARL KILLOUGH, not only as a most capable director of Hillcrest athletics, but more as a counselor to all who knew him, a gentleman to even those who didn't know him, and in particular to myself, a wonderful friend.

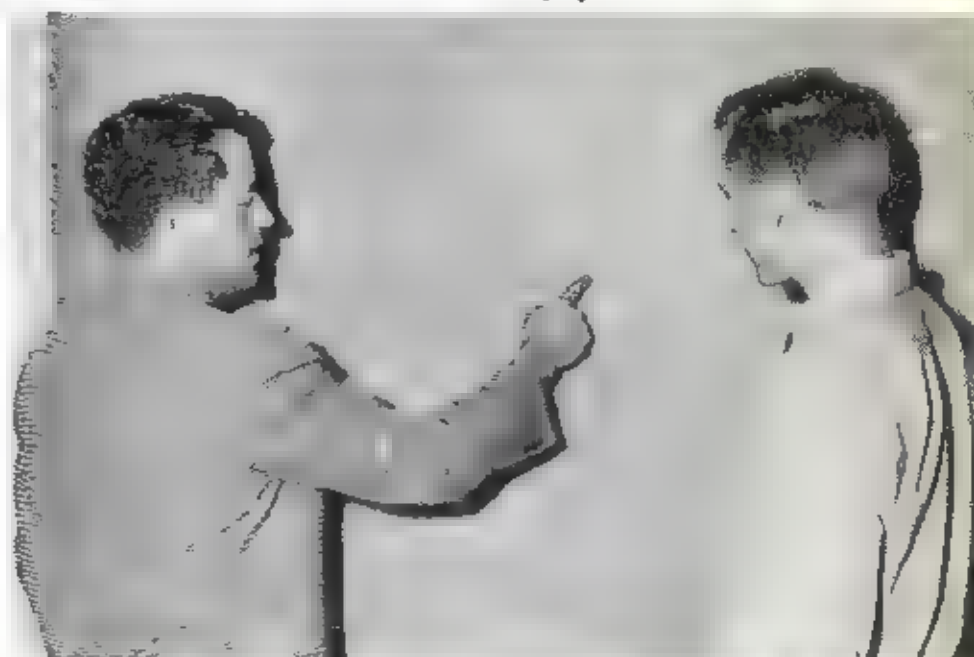

Webb Sowden

The Hillcrest Athletic Department Head reviews some of his basic T Plays.

The head mentor beams his usual amiable smile.

Brady Wyatt receives some Algebra instruction in the Killough style.

panther staff

Business Manager Jack Blaylock figures some totals as he shows the intricacies of annual book-keeping to Co-Assistant Business Managers Robert Hamblen and Kent Van Meter. Robert and Kent will keep all the financial records for the Panther in 1953-54.

Helen Stanley makes one of many phone calls to Hillcrest students about annual pictures.

Jill Van Sickle and Royce Turner plan the endsheets for the 1953 PANTHER.

Judy Shaw looks over the dummy sheets of pages already at the publishing company.

Carol Hall and Ken Oldham look up some spot designs for advertising pages.

Ed Robbins holds the 1952 Panther which backed up his subscription sales talks.

adv. dept.

The annual's "Big Three," Jack Blaylock, Maurie Suttle, and Webb Sowden map out districts for the nine-team advertising staff.

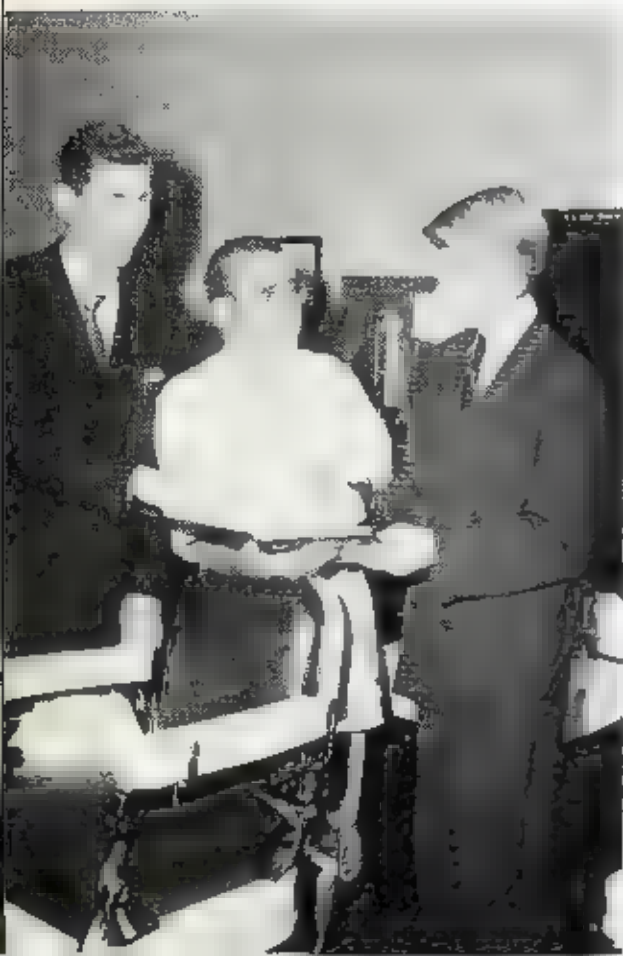

Leetie Furgueron of the Posey Shop listens intently as Beverly Bell and Judy Shaw explain an advertising design.

Mary Larned of Pomer's studies an ad scheme shown by Carolyn Clark and Pat Leverton.

Mrs. Aubrey of Aubrey's Beauty Salon okays a fourth-page ad sold by Beverly Fairchild and Burneta Clore.

"Harry" of Harry's Hardware looks over a price list with James McDonough and Mike Stern.

Jill Caldwell and Donnie Gaunt use their charm to get this sale from J. H. Storall of Storall Drugs.

Ira Young of Rink's Gift Shop quizzes Walter Cousins and Joe Balisteri about advertising policy.

Jackie Collins and Anne Gilman solicit an ad from Mrs. Anthony at the Southwestern Piano Company.

J. R. Johnson and Sadie O'Dell become the victims of Don Becker's smooth line while Walter Traxler looks on at the O'Dell-Johnson Service Station.

student council

The OFFICERS of the HILLCREST STUDENT COUNCIL: Robert Hamblen, Treasurer; Dong Mayson, Vice President; Gary Hutchison, President; and Dick Stanford, Secretary, review the roster of homeroom representatives as they appoint committees to render various services to Hillcrest clubs and students with their sponsor, Mrs. Lela Sowell.

The Student Council is an elected body representing all Hillcrest students. It is composed of officers elected by the entire student body and members elected by each homeroom.

The aim of the Student Council is to serve Hillcrest and to make each student feel a responsibility for a better school through service and courtesy. It encourages the interests of all students in extracurricular activities and unites the various classes and school organizations in unified support of greater activities for the student body.

national honor society

The HILLCREST CHAPTER MEMBERS of the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY are, Standing: Bob Stewart, Doug Mayson, William Fulkerson, Pete Wiedemann, Patsy Read, Maurie Suttle, Gary Hutchison, Webb Sowden, Don Becker, Walter Traxler, and seated, Carolyn Clark, Sandy Price, Barbara Bissett, Burneta Clore, Sue Spiegel, and Pat McBride.

"No honor conferred by the school exceeds that represented by the National Honor Society," stated Principal Fred Boswell. N.H.S. members, chosen not for their scholastic ability alone, must exalt the objectives of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. To hold these traits high in their own minds and to induce their classmates to do the same is the purpose of this organization. "Our aim shall be to hold before the school such motives as shall encourage others to inspire to scholarly habits, enlisting in worthy service, and leading forward in all things that will advance the welfare of the school," commented Miss Gladys Bellows, sponsor.

hi - y club

The MEMBERS of the HILLCREST HI-Y CLUB are, standing: John Butler, Mr. Paul Ledbetter, sponsor; Phil Williams, Walter Cousins, Fritz Heinke, Walter Humann, Jack Andrus, Jack Worley, Regi Brack, Joe Balisteri, and, seated, Bill Crone, Richard Bowers, Morris Curry, and John Youngblood.

The first Chapter of the Hillcrest Hi-Y Club was organized by the Park Cities Y.M.C.A. in October of 1952 for the purpose of creating and maintaining high standards of Christian character. It has thirteen charter members who meet every Wednesday night under the direction and guidance of their "Y" advisor, Mr. Jim Crews. Mr. Paul Ledbetter serves as the Hillcrest sponsor of the club. Last December several members of the Dallas Hi-Y Clubs journeyed to Austin to become members of the State legislature for a day and practice passing several laws and resolutions the various clubs had been studying during the year. The study of governmental procedures is part of the Hi-Y activities.

The OFFICERS of the HILLCREST CHAPTER: Walter Humann, President; Walter Cousins, Secretary; Phil Williams, Vice President; and Jack Andrus, Treasurer, map out their plans for presenting a water preservation bill to the model Legislature staged by the Texas Hi-Y Clubs in Austin.

y-teen club

HILLCREST Y-TEEN CLUB MEMBERS

The Y-Teens of Hillcrest, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ruth Hamilton, compose a club affiliated with the Young Women's Christian Association. The club members consist of girls from each class organized in a social and charitable group, sponsoring varied activities. The Y-Teens hold dances, aid in clothing and paper drives, serve the hospitals, contribute to the general welfare of the school, and meet frequently to discuss their charitable services and entertain prominent speakers interested in the girls' work. The Y-Teen goal is to develop a larger club with a broader scope of service activities and to better a girl in mind, body, and spirit. The Hillcrest Y-Teens contribute to the national effort of their organization to build a better America.

The Y-TEEN OFFICERS: Donna White, Secretary; Burneta Clore, Inter-Club Council Representative; Barbara Gamble, Vice President; Suzie Webb, Treasurer; Sherry Gibson, President; and Betty Andrews, Parliamentarian, follow Mrs. Ruth Hamilton's directions as sponsor in making tickets for a Dallas Y-Teen dance.

key club

Key Clubbing is an international organization for high school boys. Sponsored by Kiwanis International, Key Clubbers learn to develop initiative and leadership, to live and work together, and to serve their school and community. The Hillcrest Key Club, sponsored by the Park Cities—North Dallas Kiwanis Club, is each year composed of twelve members, who, after a year of fellowship and service to their school, select two boys from each of the three returning classes after screening the entire male student list. These six boys are initiated the following Fall and take the place of the six graduated seniors.

Sponsor Alvin Withrow talks to Key Clubber Don Becker about one of the weekly Kiwanis luncheons which the Hillcrest members attend.

President Webb Sowden, standing, shows the new Key Club membership cards to Secretary-Treasurer Larry Pace and Vice President Gary Hutchison.

junior rotarians

The HILLCREST JUNIOR ROTARIANS gather to hear Pete Wiedemann relate the happenings at the Rotary meeting he attended the week before. Seated around the table are: William Fulkerson, Bob Natoli, Harold Akin, Ed Robbins, and James McDonough. The Junior Rotarians alternate attending the weekly meetings of the Dallas Rotary Club. The boys have the advantage of meeting prominent Dallas business men and discussing with them over the luncheon table the problems of the business world.

traffic commission

Hillcrest members of the JUNIOR CITIZENS' TRAFFIC COMMISSION, Joe Balisteri, Gene Blocker, Sam Harris, and Joe Goodsen are shown the new type driver's license by their sponsor, Mrs. Edna Van Der Meer. These four boys belong to the Commission composed of interested students from all the Dallas high schools. This Commission operates the Juvenile Court for traffic violators each Saturday morning in the Corporation Courthouse.

pan american club

HILLCREST PAN-AMERICAN CLUB MEMBERS

PAN AMERICANS Jo Ann Kissner, Tom Pritchett, Lynn Hursig, Patty Lou Prestridge, Joe Balisteri, and Mary Baker show their sponsors, Mrs. Pollyanna Mallow and Mrs. Virginia Lopison, a basket of food they will send to underprivileged children of Dallas' "Little Mexico."

Spanish Christmas carols are attempted by Dora Brinegar, Barbara Fleming, Tom Benner, Sallie Green, and Sarah Wyatt, members of the HILLCREST PAN AMERICAN CLUB.

The PAN AMERICAN OFFICERS Virginia Diers, School Reporter; Janice Deist, State Reporter; Judy Weisblat, Publicity Chairman; Barbara Gamble, Vice President, Mollye Phillips, President; Patty Quintanilla, Treasurer, Bill Crone, Secretary, and Mary Greenwood, Program Chairman, prepare a Santa Claus pinata for their annual Christmas program.

The Hillcrest Pan American Club is a member of the Pan American Student Forum of Texas. The Pan American Club is now under the supervision of co-sponsors Mrs. Pollyanna Mallow and Mrs. Virginia Loftson. The members consist of people who are taking Spanish at present or have taken Spanish before. The purpose of the Pan American Club is to help its members better understand and acquaint themselves with our Latin American neighbors. The Pan Americans have varied and interesting activities during the year. Among the most prominent are skits and plays given in Spanish, movies and slides of Spanish-speaking countries, the traditional Christmas party with the pinata. Also the club members collect and distribute canned goods for the needy families of "Little Mexico," present an assembly on Pan American Day, and attend a city-wide dinner in the Spring. The most outstanding event during the year is the state convention in April, to which Hillcrest sends two representatives. The Pan American Club looks forward to growth and increasing interest among students in future years.

HILLCREST DEBATE CLUB MEMBERS

Since its organization in 1947, the Hillcrest Debate Club has increased in membership from seven to twenty-four at the present time, and has averaged two state champions each year. A member of the National Forensic League, Hillcrest has had entrants in the national meet for the past two years. Organized by Mr. S. Stanley Knapp, then principal, and Mrs. Lillian Spruce, the club includes the top orators in the school.

The Debate Club journeys to many invitational tournaments as well as vying with local competition. A trophy is awarded each year to the outstanding speaker, making the competition keen not only among other schools, but also within the group.

HILLCREST LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

The Library Assistants Club has been functioning since the Fall of 1946. But it was not until the Fall of 1949 that a constitution and by-laws were formulated. This year the club members will receive pins for their efforts in the library throughout the year. In order to raise the standards of membership, several pre-requisites have been adopted this year. Students must maintain an average of C or better, must meet certain personality requirements, and must pass an oral and written examination on the use of the facilities of the library. The Library Assistants, under the direction and supervision of Mrs. Vernah Scott, librarian, maintain the library during the school year, caring for the books and catering to the whims of research-hungry students. The membership this year numbers twenty-one.

Mrs. Vernah Scott, librarian, displays a new reference book to the Club officers, Ed Snyder, Vice President; Barbara Beck, President; and Russell Christner, Secretary-Treasurer.

The MEMBERS of the HILLCREST GIRLS INTRAMURAL CLUB. standing. Diane Pasely, Nan Candler, Toni Powers, Beverly Bell, and, kneeling, Donna White, Maurie Suttle, Helen Stanley, and Wanda Smith, display the equipment used in their sports program.

In 1950, a group of twenty-five girls were chosen for their interest and skill in various sports and were organized under the sponsorship of Miss Jo Oliver, physical education instructor, as the Girls Intramural Club. The club is primarily for the promotion of girls' sports activities within the school. New members are elected into the club for their participation in sports during gym class and in afternoon intramural games. Each Spring the G.I.C. sponsors the Co-Intramurals for boys and girls in which the mixed couples vie in tournament play for honors in such sports as volleyball, badminton, aerial tennis darts, and table tennis.

Seniors Maurie Suttle and Toni Powers jump a tip-off after a double foul in an afternoon basketball game.

Junior Helen Stanley attempts a free throw in a close G.I.C. game as other club members wait for action to resume.

SELECTED CHORUS

INTERMEDIATE CHORUS

Helen Stanley, Maurie Suttle, Carol Bell, Toni Powers, Diane Pasely, and Sandy Price comprise the Hillcrest girls' sextet.

Kent White, Paul Hamby, Harold Akin, and Tom Benner harmonize as the boys' quartet at Hillcrest.

Mrs. Edna Van Der Meer sings, plays the piano, and directs her chorus.

The Hillcrest Chorus was first organized in 1949 under the supervision of Mrs. Edna Van Der Meer. The Chorus includes students of all classifications and is offered as an elective subject. The Chorus studies a wide variety of musical selections. Some of its many activities are participations in an all city chorus with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, in a city-wide Music Festival, in Dads' Club and P.T.A. meetings during the Christmas season, and in school assemblies coupled with an annual Spring Concert.

devotional committee

The MEMBERS of the HILLCREST DEVOTIONAL COMMITTEE, standing Patsy Smith, Joe Balisteri, Becky May, Webb Sowden, Elaine Edleman, Barbara Beck, Phil Williams, Patty Quintanilla, Tom Pritchett, and, seated, Annette Robinson, Maurie Suttle, Kay Wander, Wanda Smith, Sandy Price, Jo Ann Kissner, and Marian Salzberger select an appropriate passage from the Bible for their annual Christmas program

The DEVOTIONAL COMMITTEE OFFICERS: Mike Stern, Vice President, Robert Dollgener, President; and Carolyn Clark, Secretary, discuss with their sponsors, Mrs. Pansy Cowan and Mr. Paul Ladbetter, the subject matter of the morning devotionals.

Last year Mr. Boswell and several students felt the need for an organization to increase interdenominational fellowship; therefore, a group of interested students formed the Devotional Committee. There are now eighteen members; six of each of the three major faiths represented at Hillcrest. Devotionals are given each morning, consisting of a Scripture reading, a brief meditation, and a closing prayer, alternately by the members of each denomination. Faculty and students must agree that these devotional programs have added much to a day at school. The members of this year's Committee hope that the future growth of Hillcrest will promote a paralleled growth in the devotionals and the Devotional Committee.

CAMERA CLUB MEMBERS

With a new school comes a new and interesting club, the Camera Club. The club was organized for the first time at Hillcrest in 1952 under the direction and sponsorship of Mr. Orville Correll. The club is composed of students from all class sections. The purpose of the Camera Club is to inform the students about photography and to produce better photographers. The members are to learn composition and developing along with using the different types of equipment. As students of Hillcrest let us encourage and witness the growth of this new club with the growth and development of Hillcrest High.

"Love Makes the World Go Around and the Red Cross Makes Love Go Around the World." This slogan is the principle upon which the Red Cross has based its international humane program. By helping the unfortunate and needy, Red Cross volunteers have accomplished two purposes. They are able to give aid to those who need it and they set an example of friendly relations for others to follow. The junior division of the Red Cross is doing an invaluable part in this world-wide organization both in working with the seniors and carrying on their own activities. Hillcrest is doing its part of the job in a manner to be proud of. In the 1952 membership campaign it was the first Dallas school to be enrolled with 100%. Since this enthusiastic beginning, there has been no lapse in the response shown to the call for volunteers. In its own way Hillcrest is "making the world go around!"

HILLCREST JUNIOR RED CROSS REPRESENTATIVES

JUNIOR RED CROSS MEMBERS: Jo Ann Kissner, Don McCarthy, Pat Moore, Dora Barrow, and Sarah Wyatt sew large red Christmas stockings for a local children's hospital. Under Mrs. Lois Norred's supervision, the girls often sew various clothing articles for underprivileged Dallas youth. Mrs. Norred also directed the annual campaign for Junior Red Cross members at Hillcrest and reached her goal of 100%.

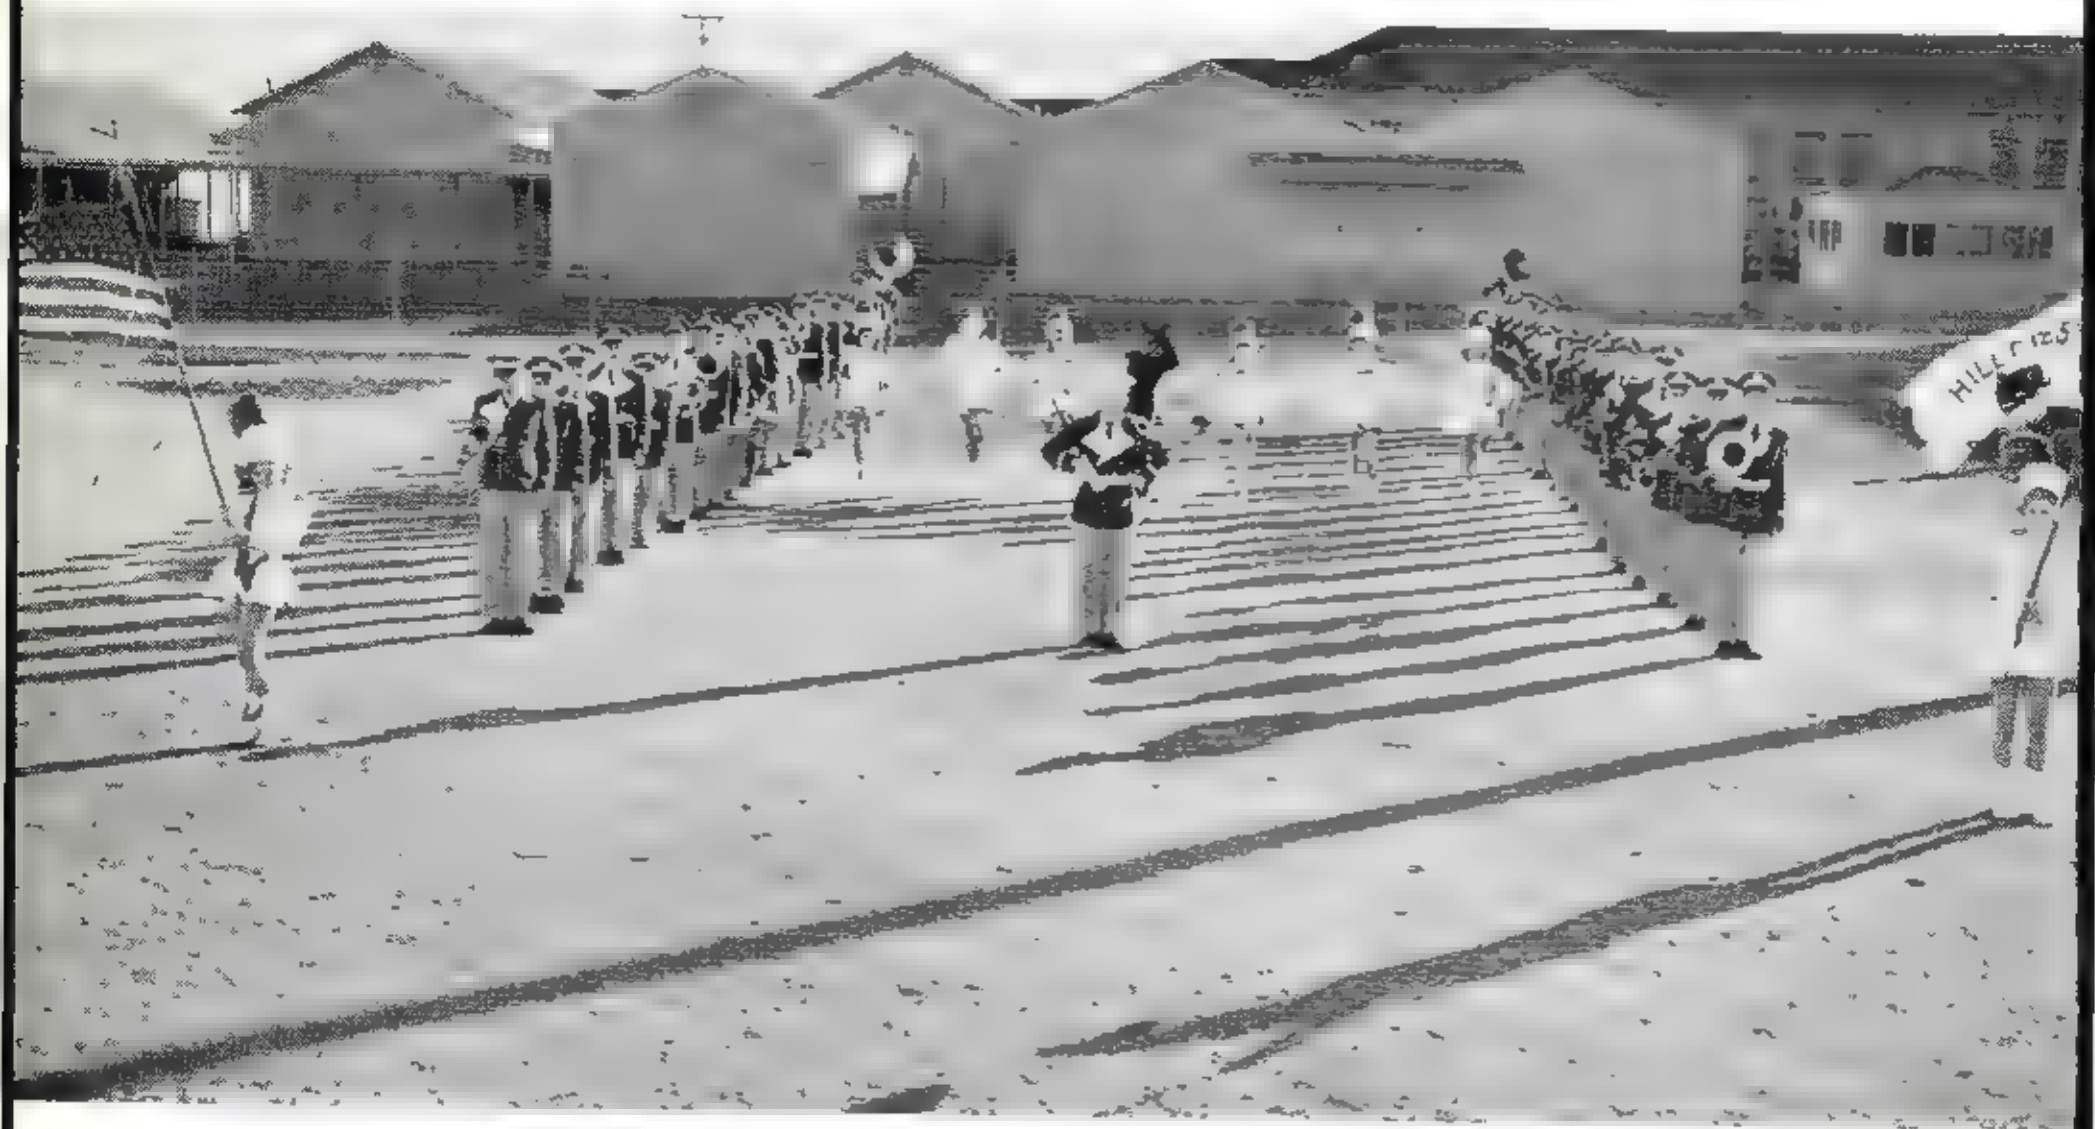

Nut cup tray decorations are the project of this group of Junior Red Cross workers. They will be used with the meals served hospital patients on Christmas day. Hillcrest members are very active in their work with these hospitals, making all sorts of cheering items from these small tray ornaments to large children's scrapbooks.

HILLCREST PANADERS

The Hillcrest drill team which bears the name PANADERS, performed this year for the first time. The girls provide half-time entertainment at football games and other school functions. Made up of thirty-two, plus the drill master, the PANADERS parade the Hillcrest colors of red and white with their main purpose of establishing and promoting school spirit in addition to providing the school with entertainment.

Drill Master Helen Stanley and Miss Jo Oliver, sponsor, map out maneuvers for a PANADER performance at half-time during the Terrell game.

Officers Jackie Collins, President; Maurie Suttle, Secretary-Treasurer; and Anne Gilman, Vice President, pose "at ease" before an evening's performance.

dads club

On the back row are seated Rollin Becker, Department of Program; Nelson Teeple; Dick Bland, Department of Public Relations, and on the front row are R. T. Palmer, Ed Campbell, President '51, '52; Lynn Crossley, President '53; Van Plumlee, Department of Improvements.

The Hillcrest Dads Club was organized in 1945 and is becoming more and more important as our school grows larger. The membership of the club has grown in number more than ever before during the past two years. This year with the help of Hillcrest students, the Dads Club has reached a new high with a membership of 315 dads.

The Dads Club's purpose is to create a closer relationship between the dads and the school. They wish to sponsor such things as band uniforms, cheerleader jackets, transportation facilities, debate trips, and other useful contributions.

The Dads Club has programs through the year which include student participation programs. They urge the classes at Hillcrest to make suggestions to the Dads Club and hope to have students come before them during the year with suggestions and problems.

This year the Dads Club has adopted the Public Address System project for our new school. They urge students, parents, teachers, and the community to help in carrying through this important project. The Dads Club plans to hold semi-annual open houses so parents may see the school in action.

The Dads Club looks forward to the time when every dad of a Hillcrest student participates in the Dads Club activities.

parent-teachers association

On the back row are Myrtle Prestridge, Study Group; Betty Patterson, Sunshine; Jewel Hall, Social Chairman; Jacques Lusby, Treasurer; Kathleen Webb, Recording Secretary; Pat Irwin, Department of Efficiency; Bess McCarthy, Student Social Chairman, Jean Pierson, Parliamentarian, Inez Winner, Delegate to Dallas City Council; and on the front row are Anna Clore, Program Chairman; Dixie Gibson, Department of Program Service, Elizabeth Akin, Life Membership; Hazel Campbell, Vice President; Bernice Williams, President '53; Mary Lou Woodard, Corresponding Secretary; Honey Lively, Historian; Aline Hamblen, Department of Activities.

The Parent-Teachers Association of Hillcrest was organized in 1937, and has since been a growing and vital organization in Hillcrest. Membership has increased more and more during the past two years with the help of former members and students of Hillcrest.

The Parent-Teachers Association has many aims which are vital to students, teachers, and parents alike. Some of its many aims are to create a closer relationship between home and school, to help the parents understand school curriculum, and to promote the welfare of the child in home, school, church, and community. The P.-T.A. has a variety of programs in order to fulfill its aims. Among its yearly activities there are several outstanding. They have speakers to lecture on the needs of the adolescent, student speakers, panels to discuss juvenile problems, and programs presented by different departments within the school. Founder's Day in February is marked by a special program.

The P.-T.A. sponsors a Spring Dance, besides its usual "soc hops," publishes a Directory, and embarks on special projects for betterment of the school. This organization also founded the Betty Jo Kane Memorial Scholarship Fund.

The Hillcrest Parent-Teachers Association looks forward to the time when every parent of a Hillcrest student is a member of the P.-T.A.

Mrs. J. O. Williams, new art teacher, inspects one of her students drawings.

The new P. E. and health teacher, Mrs. Grace Pratt, briefs her class on "How To Care For Your Skin."

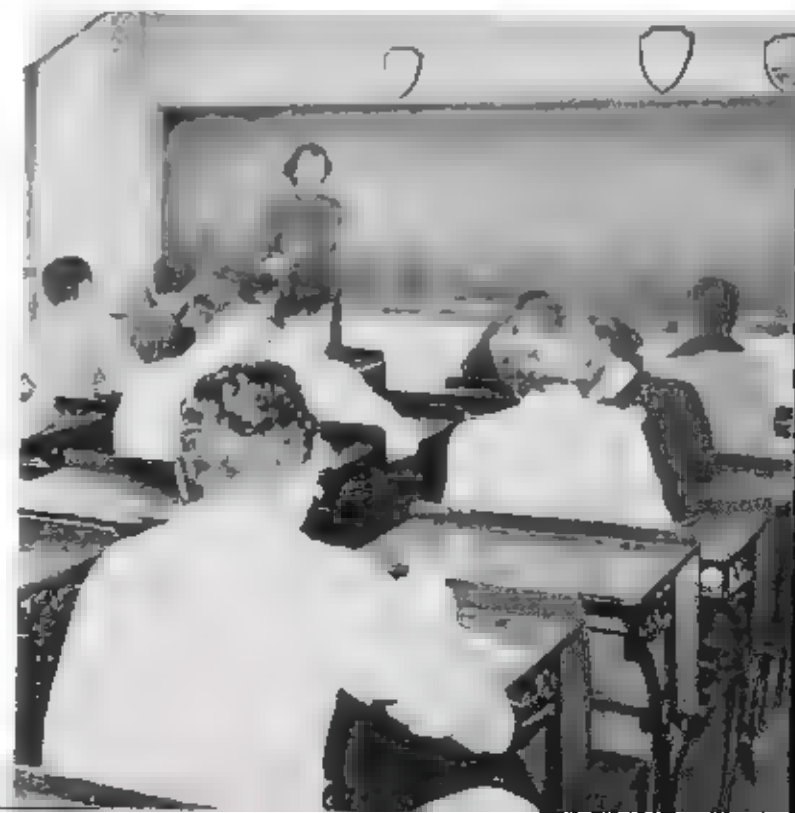

Bill Bracher tacks up one of the many posters that he has drawn for the various departments. Bill is cartoonist for the PANTHER.

The Latin Class of Mrs. Lillian Spruce laughs at one of Caesar's many exploits.

Mrs. Claire Cunningham tells her class about the debate plaques that adorn her room.

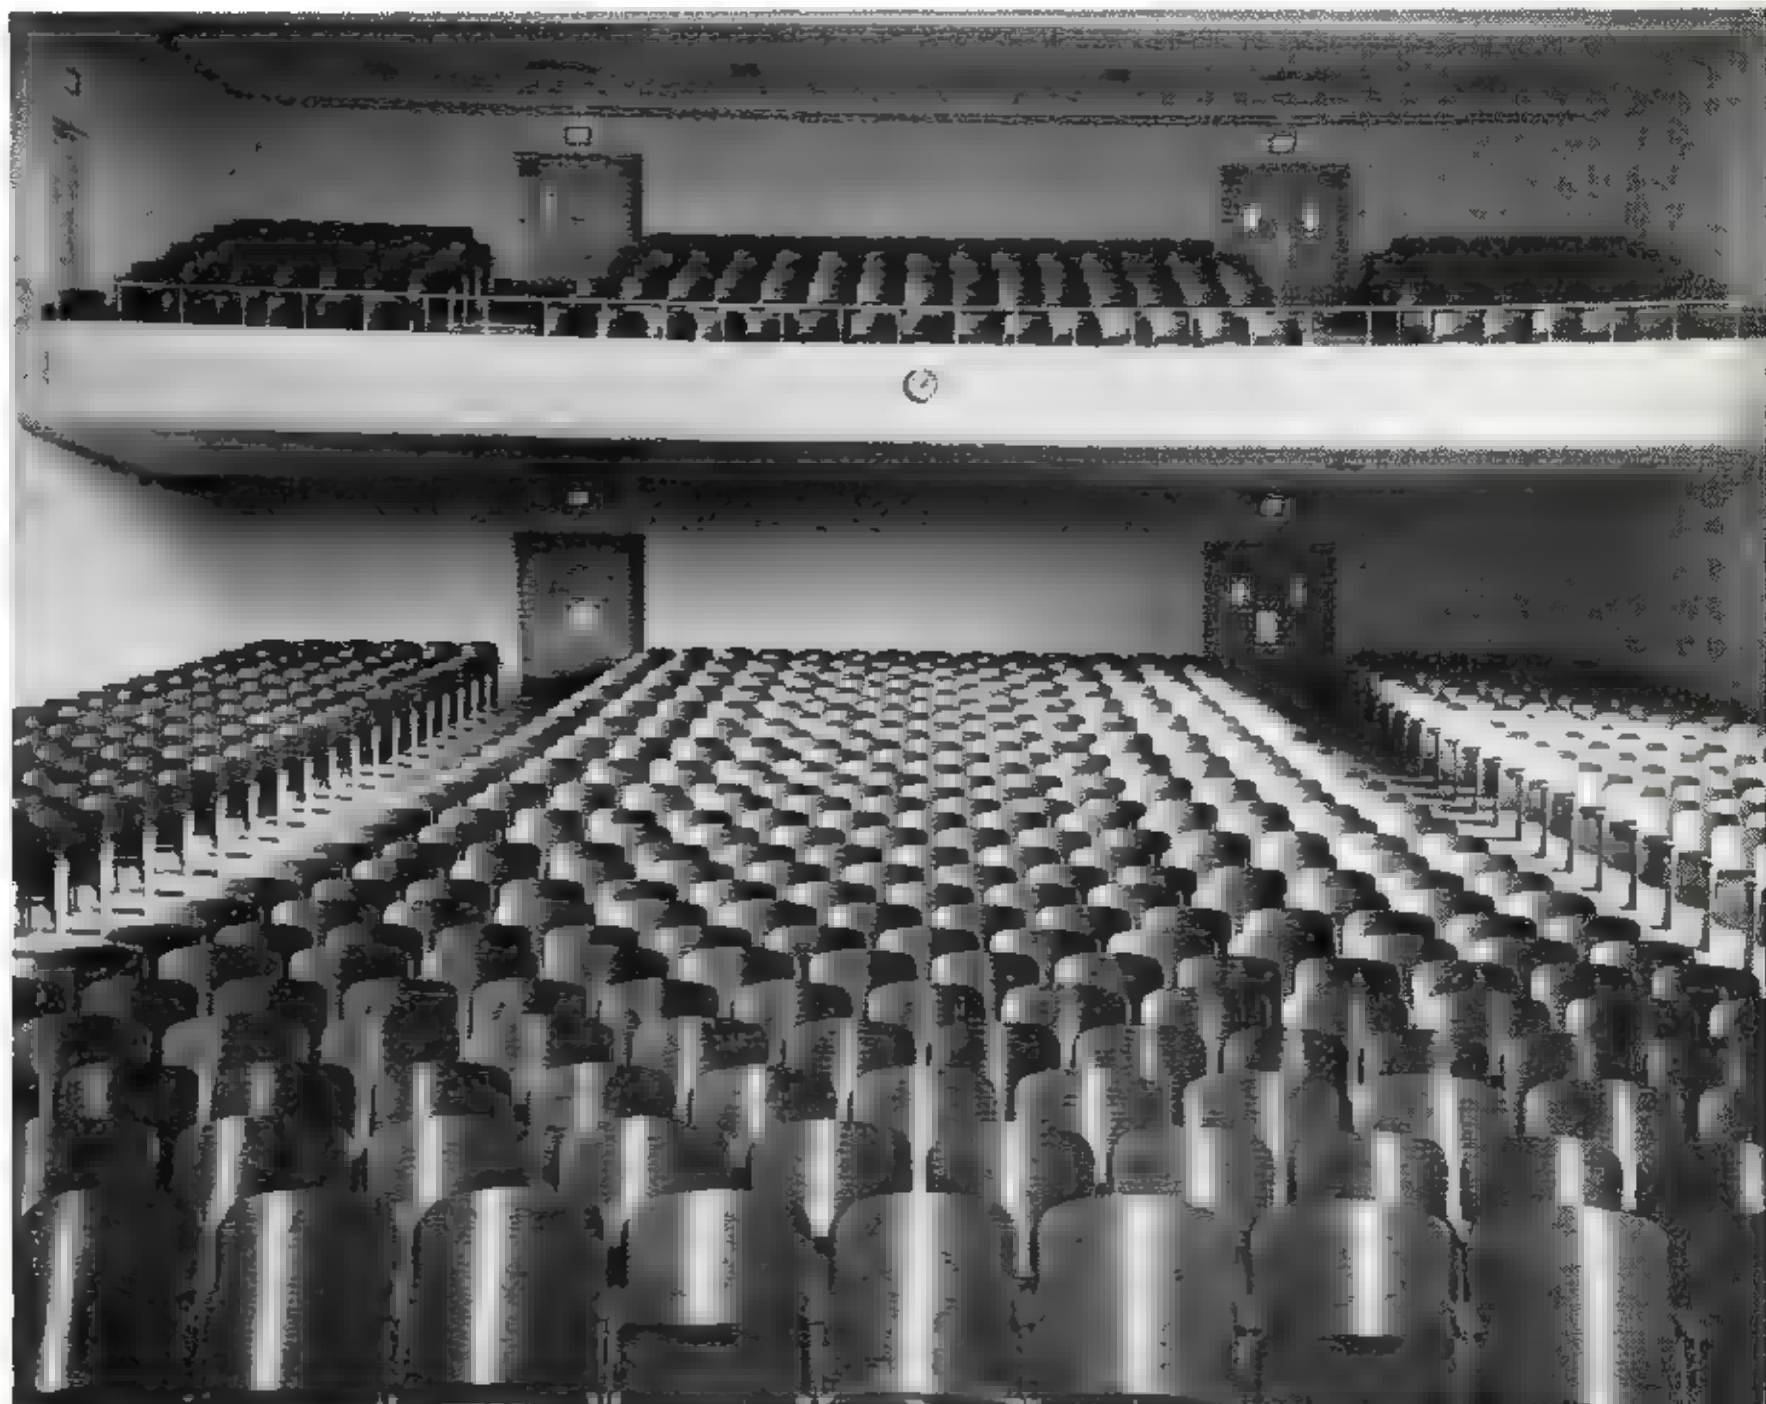

The usual mid morning congestion surrounds Miss Margaret Brooks as she tries to give a student an admit card

Mr. J. C. Mitchell proudly issues Bob Natoli three books out of the newly acquired Book Room.

The new auditorium majestically awaits another assembly.

Mrs. Waldine Blankenship, school secretary, receives a call in her new office.

A part of the newest addition to the school study under the watchful eye of Mr. W. W. Thompson Mrs. Waldine Blankenship and Mrs. Dortha Facka share cramped office space in the old building.

Seeing moving pictures under favorable conditions can now be enjoyed by the students in the new audio-visual room.

Mrs. Dortha Facka, school clerk, removes a daily record from one of her many drawers in the new office.

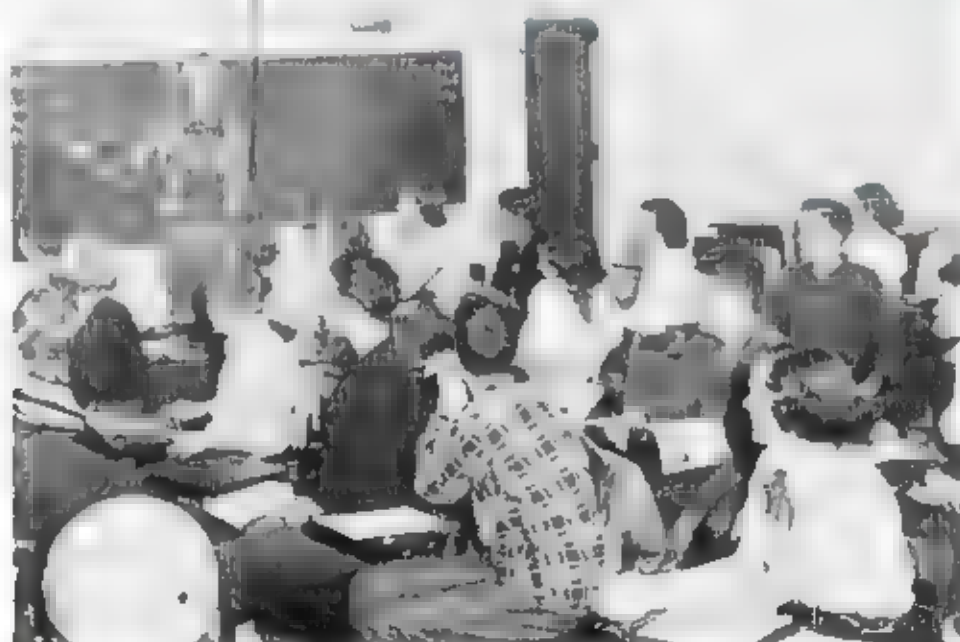

Miss Gladys Bellows explains the assignment to a Typing 4 student.

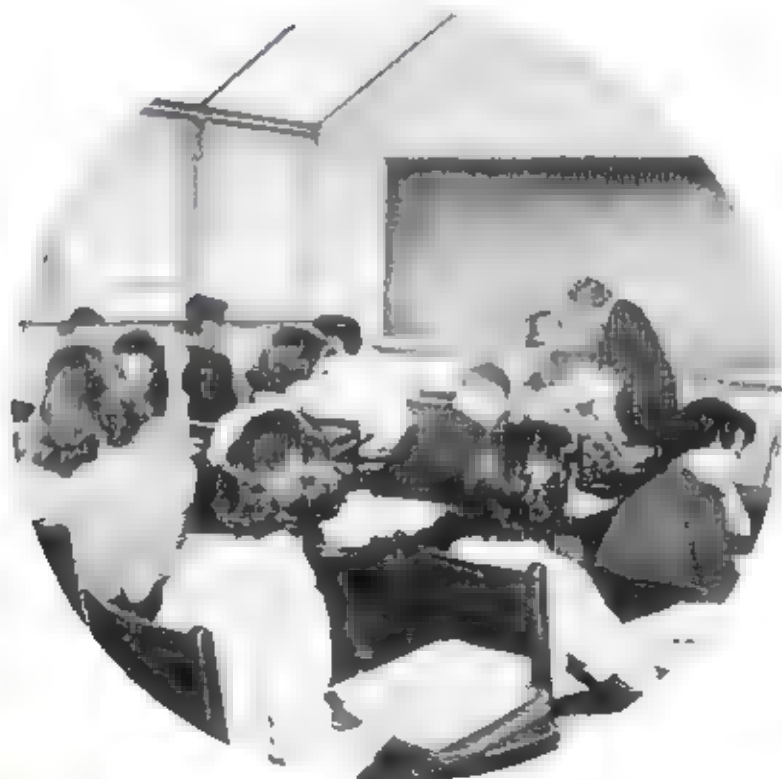

Passing period sometimes provides the setting for many funny antics.

Too sweet & pretty girl

A section of women graders intently watch the explanation of their teacher, Mr. T. T. White history teacher.

Junior English students concentrate on theme writing under the supervision of Mrs. Tezzie Johnson Cox.

Miss Gattrell Watson and Mrs. Doretha Facka relax in the women teachers lounge.

The students seem to have a good time selecting their noon day meal from the many kinds of food offered in the new cafeteria

Mrs. Ruth Hamilton smiles as she turns the class over to a student teacher from Southern Methodist University.

Cheerleaders Pat Wood, Tom Benner, and Mollye Phillips lead the crowd in a lusty basketball yell.

Mrs. Martha Widner explains the assets of good spelling in English to her class of Sophomores.

Mrs. Lynette McElhannon, teacher, summarizes the days lesson for the newest members of the school.

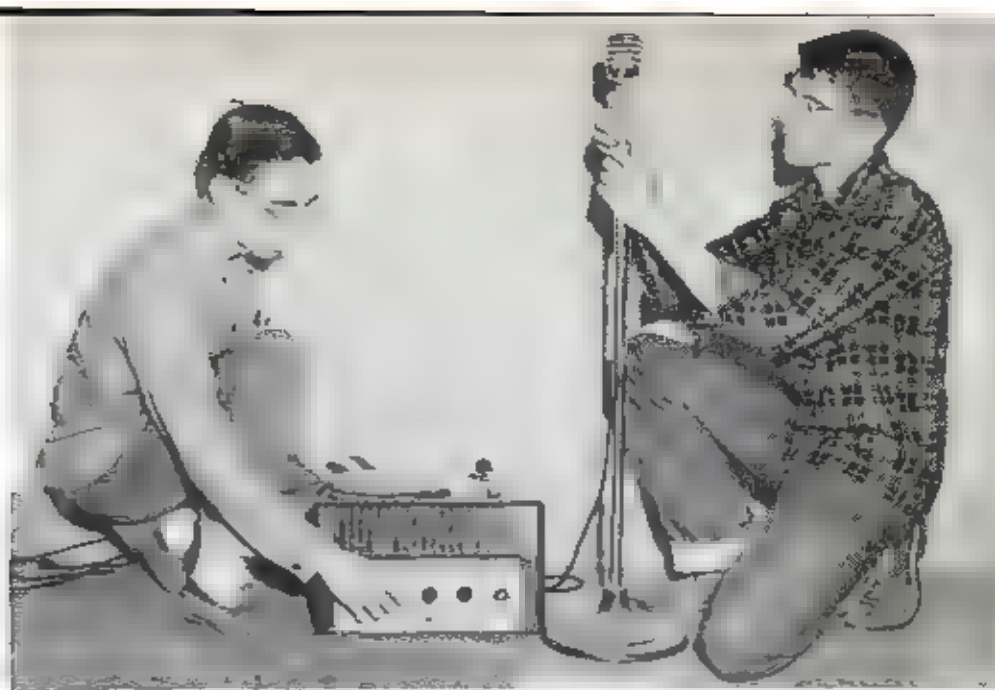

Lynette McElhannon

Debaters Annette Robinson and Hilda Mote display the First Place trophy they won in Girls Debate at North Texas State College in Denton.

Ed Snyder, library assistant, stamps a Hillcrest students book which he plans to take from the library.

The Junior Highers study the prose and poetry of the modern day under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Myrtle Worth who is substituting for Miss Winoma Timmons.

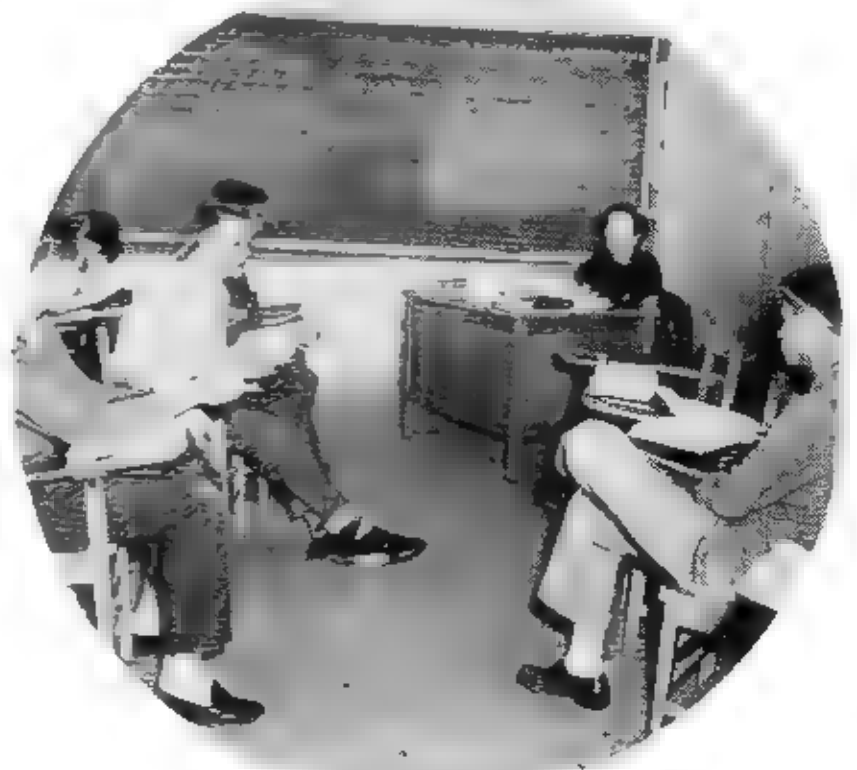

Coaches Beasley, Killough, Salmon, and Withrow take the roll of the various members of the sixth period gym class.

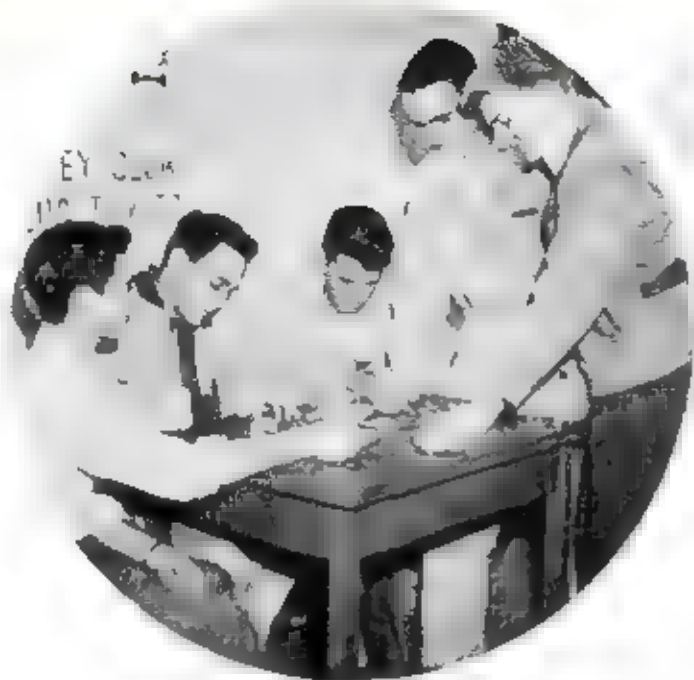

New math teacher, Mr. C. M. Morhus demonstrates the correct way to work a certain type of math problem.

Principal and Mrs. Fred R. Boswell visited Mrs. Eva Benner, former Hillcrest Spanish teacher who was injured in an automobile accident, on their trip to California.

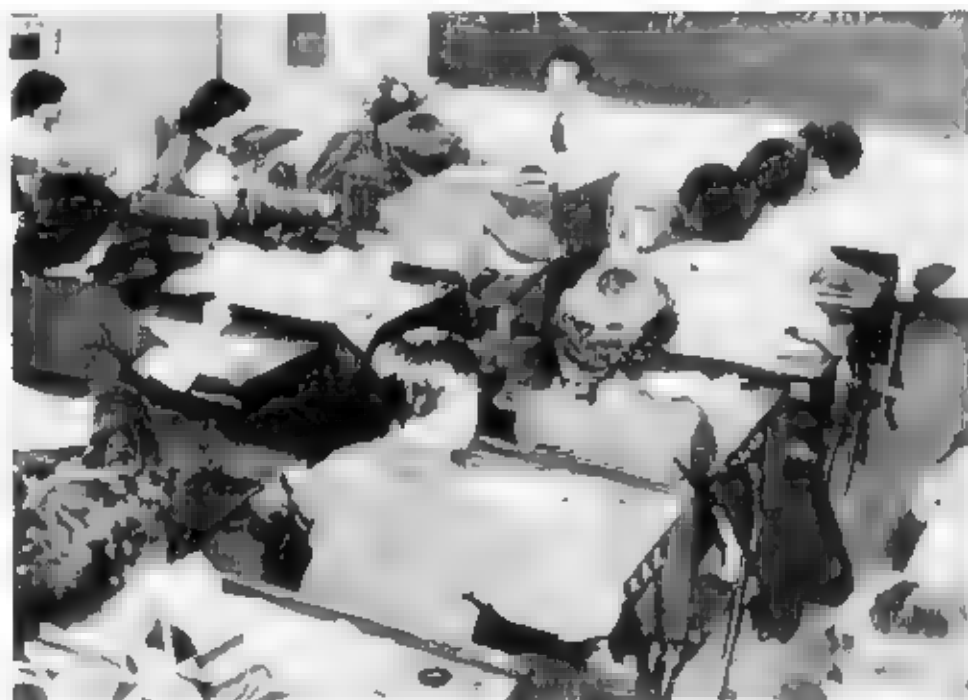

Mrs. Pansy Cowan guides her class of juniors in the study of the United States Constitution.

Key Clubbers Joe Balisteria, Webb Sowden, and Jack Blaylock sell bus tickets to Walter Cousins and Phil Williams.

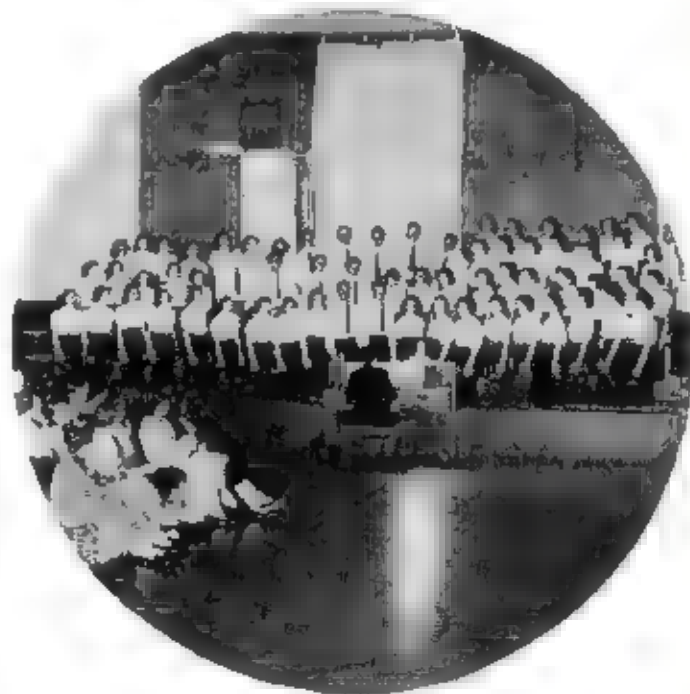

Mr. Robert Quast demonstrates the use of a "T" square to a student.

Mr. O. W. Corvell teaches his class of eighth graders the correct way to add fractions.

Under the supervision of Miss Mary Chatfield, a part of the Sophomore Class uses the last half of the period for study.

The entire chorus under the direction of Miss Edna Van Der Meer sings for the Dads Club and P.T.A.

The late 1940's marked the rapid growth of Preston Hollow, which was then outside the city limits. The Vickery Independent School District, headed by F. D. Mayo, realized the necessity for a high school to meet the needs of the growing population. Construction began in the Spring of 1937 under the direction of Frank L. Dunham, architect, and J. O. Everett, contractor.

The school was completed in the fall of the same year and was named Vickery-Hillcrest High School. The building contained nine classrooms, a gym, cafeteria, and office, and the surrounding territory was still pasture land.

When the school opened, Mr. E. D. McLaughlin was appointed principal. In 1939 he was replaced by Mr. Fred R. Boswell, a former biology teacher at Highland Park. Mr. S. Stanley Knapp held the position from 1946 to 1950. Mr. Boswell then returned and is presently the principal.

Miss Gladys Bellows, one of the original teachers, still holds her position at Hillcrest. Not long after, Mr. J. C. Mitchell, a math teacher, and Mrs. Lillian Spruce, a Latin instructor joined the faculty. During the early forties Hillcrest acquired many other teachers who are still faculty members. These are Mr. Earl Killough, Mrs. Verna Scott, Mr. George C. Neal, and Mr. E. L. Hohman.

In 1945 the city extended its boundaries and our school came into the Dallas Independent School District, acquiring its present name, Hillcrest High School. In 1948 locker rooms and portables were added to accomodate the growing student body.

In the Spring of 1952 work began on a new and modern addition under the direction of Mark Lemmon, consulting architect, and Hal C. Dyer, contractor. On February 2, 1953, classes began in the new and modern building. Work will begin shortly for another addition to the present building.

And Hillcrest High School continues to contribute to its own history and the history of Dallas, Texas.
